This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus are part of a registration statement on Form S-3 that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or SEC, using the “shelf” registration process. Under this shelf registration process, the selling stockholders identified in this prospectus supplement may, from time to time, sell the offered securities in one or more offerings or resales as described in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus.

Both this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus include or incorporate by reference important information about us, our common stock and other information you should know before investing. You should read both this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus together with the additional information about our company to which we refer you in the section of this prospectus entitled “Where You Can Find More Information.”

You should rely only on the information contained in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including the information incorporated by reference herein, and any free writing prospectus that we prepare and distribute. Neither we nor the selling stockholders have authorized anyone else to provide you with different information. The securities are not being offered in any jurisdiction where the offer or sale is not permitted. You should not assume that the information contained in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus or any free writing prospectus is accurate on any date subsequent to the date set forth on the front of the respective document, or that any information we have incorporated by reference is correct on any date subsequent to the date of the document incorporated by reference, even though this prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement is delivered or securities are sold on a later date. Our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may have changed materially since those dates.

This prospectus supplement may add to, update, or change the information in the accompanying prospectus. If information in this prospectus supplement is inconsistent with information in the accompanying prospectus, this prospectus supplement will apply and will supersede that information in the accompanying prospectus.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus contain and incorporate by reference forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Forward-looking statements can be identified by such words and phrases as “we expect,” “expected to,” “estimates,” “estimated,” “overview,” “current outlook,” “we look forward to,” “would equate to,” “projects,” “projections,” “projected to be,” “anticipates,” “anticipated,” “we believe,” “believes,” “could be,” and other similar words or phrases. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements we make regarding operating performance, events, or developments that we expect or anticipate will occur in the future, including statements relating to our outlook, revenue growth, earnings, earnings-per-share growth, or similar projections.

Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are based only on our current beliefs, expectations, and assumptions regarding the future of our business, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy, and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks, and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict, many of which are outside our control. Our actual results and financial conditions may differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements. Therefore, you should not place undue reliance upon any of these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause our actual results and financial condition to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements include, among others, the following:

- general market and economic conditions including, among others, changes in U.S. employment and wage levels, changes to new hiring trends, legislative changes to stimulate the economy, changes in short- and long-term interest rates, changes in the fair value and the credit rating of securities held by us, and accessibility of financing;
- changes in demand for our services and products, ability to develop and market new services and products effectively, pricing changes, and the impact of competition;
- changes in the availability of skilled workers, in particular those supporting our technology and product development;
- changes in the laws regulating collection and payment of payroll taxes, professional employer organizations, and employee benefits, including retirement plans, workers' compensation insurance, health insurance (including health care reform legislation), state unemployment, and section 125 plans;
- changes in health insurance and workers' compensation insurance rates and underlying claims trends;
- changes in technology that adversely affect our products and services and impact our ability to provide timely enhancements to services and products;
- the possibility of cyber-attacks, security breaches, or other security vulnerabilities that could disrupt operations or expose confidential client data, and could also result in reduced revenues, increased costs, liability claims, or harm to our competitive position;
- the possibility of the failure of our operating facilities, or the failure of our computer systems, and communication systems during a catastrophic event;
- the possibility of third-party service providers failing to perform their functions;
- the possibility of a failure of internal controls or our inability to implement business processing improvements;
- the possibility that we may be subject to liability for violations of employment or discrimination laws by our clients and acts or omissions of client employees who may be deemed to be our agents, even if we do not participate in any such acts or violations, including possible liability related to our co-employment relationship with our professional employer organization;
- potentially unfavorable outcomes related to pending or future legal matters; and
- risks related to the integration of the businesses we acquire.

These and other risks and uncertainties may cause our actual results to differ materially and adversely from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Investors are directed to risks and uncertainties referenced below under "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in this prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference herein for additional detail regarding factors that may cause actual results to be different than those expressed in our forward-looking statements. Investors are urged to consider these factors carefully in evaluating the forward-looking statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such forward-looking statements.

The information provided or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement is based upon the facts and circumstances known at this time, and any forward-looking statements made by us or incorporated by reference in this prospectus speak only as of the date on which they are made. Except as required by law, we undertake no obligation to revise or update publicly any forward-looking statements for any reason.

Our principal executive offices are located at 911 Panorama Trail South, Rochester, New York 14625-2396 and our principal website address is www.paychex.com. Information on or accessible through our website is not incorporated into this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves risks. You should not purchase shares of our common stock unless you understand these investment risks. Please be aware that other risks may prove to be important in the future. New risks may emerge at any time, and we cannot predict such risks or estimate the extent to which they may affect our financial performance. Before purchasing any shares of our common stock, you should consider carefully the information in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus and carefully read the risks described below and in the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including the discussion under “Part I-Item 1A. Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended May 31, 2017, as such discussion may be amended or updated in other reports filed by us with the SEC.

Realization of any of those risks or the following risks or adverse results from any matter listed under the heading “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” in this prospectus supplement or in our reports filed with the SEC under the Exchange Act could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, cash flows and results of operations and could result in a decline in the market price of our common stock. As a result, you could lose all or part of your investment in the shares of our common stock. The following risks and uncertainties and the risks and uncertainties we discuss in the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus are those we currently believe may materially affect our company.

Risks Related to Our Common Stock

We may reduce or cease to pay dividends on our common stock.

We can provide no assurance that we will continue to pay dividends on our common stock at the current rate or at all. The determination of the amount of future cash dividends, if any, to be declared and paid on our common stock will depend upon, among other factors, our financial condition, cash flow and future business prospects.

There may be future dilution of our common stock, which may adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

We are not restricted from selling or issuing additional shares of our common stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for our common stock. In addition, holders of shares of our common stock are not entitled to any preemptive rights - that is, rights to purchase their pro rata share of any offering of shares of our common stock - and, therefore, any sales or issuances by us of our common stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for our common stock could result in increased dilution to our stockholders, and such dilution could be substantial. The market price of our common stock may be adversely affected by sales or issuances of additional shares of our common stock or securities convertible into or exchangeable for our common stock, or by the perception that such a sale or issuance or other dilution may occur. Our Restated Certificate of Incorporation authorizes our board of directors to issue up to 600,000,000 shares of our common stock, $0.01 par value per share. As of September 29, 2017, there were 359,329,193 shares of our common stock outstanding and 240,670,807 shares of our common stock available for future issuance.

USE OF PROCEEDS

All of the shares of common stock being offered hereby are being sold by the selling stockholders identified in this prospectus supplement. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of shares of common stock.

SELLING STOCKHOLDERS

This prospectus supplement relates to the resale of up to 465,209 shares of our common stock held by the selling stockholders listed below. The selling stockholders may from time to time offer and sell pursuant to this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus any or all of the shares of our common stock being registered. Any proceeds from the sale of the common stock offered pursuant to this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus are solely for the account of the selling stockholders.

The selling stockholders acquired these shares from us in a private offering pursuant to an exemption from registration provided in Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act or Regulation D, Rule 506 thereunder in connection with our acquisition of HR Outsourcing Holdings, Inc., or HROI, in a merger transaction completed in August 2017. Under the merger agreement for the HROI acquisition, we agreed to file a registration statement on Form S-3 covering the resale of certain shares issued to the selling stockholders in the merger, subject to the timely receipt of necessary information from the selling stockholders. This prospectus supplement is part of such registration statement filed on Form S-3, and relates to certain fully vested shares of Paychex common stock issued as of August 18, 2017, the date of closing of our acquisition of HROI, and registered for resale pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, as further described below.

In connection with the closing of the HROI acquisition, certain HROI stockholders were entitled to receive, in exchange for their shares of capital stock of HROI, an aggregate of 725,137 shares of Paychex's common stock. Of such shares, 482,925 were fully vested upon closing of the HROI acquisition and 242,112 were issued subject to time-based or performance-based vesting conditions. Under the merger agreement for the HROI acquisition, we agreed to file a registration statement on Form S-3 covering the resale of the fully vested shares issued to the selling stockholders in the merger (excluding 3,491 of such fully vested shares, which shares are held in escrow to fund certain indemnification obligations to us related to this acquisition) as soon as reasonably practicable, subject to the timely receipt of necessary information from the selling stockholders. The shares being offered do not include any shares held of record by the selling stockholders that were held in escrow pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement for the HROI acquisition or shares subject to vesting conditions as of the date of closing of our acquisition of HROI. Additionally, certain former HROI stockholders entitled to receive fully vested shares of our common stock in the merger have not delivered the necessary documentation and information. Such former HROI stockholders are not identified in this prospectus supplement as selling stockholders and the fully vested shares of our common stock issuable to such former HROI stockholders are not included in the shares registered for resale under this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus.

We have agreed to pay certain fees and expenses incident to the registration and listing of the shares of common stock owned by the selling stockholders. Our expenses for the registration of the shares of our common stock are estimated to be approximately $81,000.

The table below sets forth certain information known to us, based upon written representations from the selling stockholders, with respect to the beneficial ownership of our shares of common stock held by the selling stockholders. Because the selling stockholders may sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all, some, or none of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus supplement, or may acquire additional shares in transactions after the date of this prospectus supplement, we cannot determine the number of such shares that will be sold, transferred, or otherwise disposed of by the selling stockholders, or the amount or percentage of shares of our common stock that will be held by the selling stockholders upon termination of any particular offering. See “Plan of Distribution.” For purposes of the table below, we assume that the selling stockholders will sell all their shares of common stock covered by this prospectus supplement and that no additional shares of common stock of the Company are subsequently bought or sold by the selling stockholders.

In the table below, the percentage of shares beneficially owned is based on 359,329,193 shares of our common stock outstanding as of September 29, 2017, determined in accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act. Under such rule, beneficial ownership includes any shares over which the selling stockholder has sole or shared voting power or investment power and also any shares that the selling stockholder has the right to acquire within 60 days of such date through the exercise of any options or other rights. Except as otherwise indicated and subject to applicable community property laws, we believe that the selling stockholders have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of the common stock shown as beneficially owned by them. The beneficial ownership information presented in this table is not necessarily indicative of beneficial ownership for any other purpose.

Except as set forth in, or incorporated by reference into, this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus, none of the selling stockholders has held any position or office with, been employed by, or otherwise has had a material relationship with us or any of our affiliates during the three years prior to the date of this prospectus supplement.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The shares of common stock covered by this prospectus supplement are being registered to permit public secondary trading of these shares by the selling stockholders. The selling stockholders (which term as used herein includes their respective donees, pledgees, transferees, or other successors in interest) may, from time to time, sell any or all of the shares of common stock beneficially owned by them and offered hereby. The selling stockholders will act independently of us in making decisions with respect to the timing, manner, and size of each sale.

The sales may be made on one or more exchanges or in the over-the-counter market or otherwise, at prices and at terms then prevailing or at prices related to the then current market price, or in negotiated transactions. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the common stock by the selling stockholders.

The selling stockholders may effect such transactions by selling the shares of common stock to or through broker-dealers. The shares of common stock may be sold through broker-dealers by one or more of, or a combination of, the following:

- through NASDAQ or on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the shares of common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;
- a block trade in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
- in privately negotiated transactions; and
- any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law .

The selling stockholders may also sell shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus.

The selling stockholders also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus.

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated. Any profits on the resale of shares of common stock by a broker-dealer acting as principal might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act.

Discounts, concessions, commissions, and similar selling expenses, if any, attributable to the sale of shares will be borne by a selling stockholder. The selling stockholders may agree to indemnify any agent, dealer, or broker-dealer that participates in transactions involving sales of the shares if liabilities are imposed on that person under the Securities Act. In connection with sales of the shares of common stock or otherwise, the selling stockholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the shares of common stock in the course of hedging in positions they assume. The selling stockholders may also sell shares of common stock short and deliver shares of common stock covered by this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus to close out short positions and to return borrowed shares in connection with such short sales. The selling stockholders may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers, who may then resell or otherwise transfer those shares. The selling stockholders may also loan or pledge shares of common stock to broker-dealers that in turn may sell such shares.

The selling stockholders and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

The selling stockholders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of common stock from time to time under this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus after we have filed a prospectus supplement under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act supplementing or amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus and may sell the shares of common stock from time to time under this prospectus after we have filed a prospectus supplement under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act supplementing or amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders have informed us that none of them have any agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the common stock. If any selling stockholder notifies us that a material arrangement has been entered into with a broker-dealer for the sale of shares through a block trade, special offering or secondary distribution or a purchase by a broker or dealer, we may be required to file an amendment to this prospectus supplement. If the selling stockholders use this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus for any sale of the shares of common stock, they will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. Certain selling stockholders who are entities rather than natural persons may distribute shares to their partners, shareholders or other owners in normal course, who may in turn sell the shares in the manner listed above.

Under the securities laws of some states, the shares of common stock may be sold in such states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the shares of common stock may not be sold unless such shares have been registered or qualified for sale in such state or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is complied with.

There can be no assurance that any selling stockholder will sell any or all of the shares of common stock registered pursuant to the shelf registration statement, of which this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus form a part.

We are required to pay certain fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares.

The selling stockholders and any other person participating in such distribution will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including, without limitation, Regulation M of the Exchange Act, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares of common stock by the selling stockholders and any other participating person. Regulation M may also restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares of common stock to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of common stock. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the shares of common stock and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares of common stock.

Once sold under the shelf registration statement, of which this prospectus supplement and accompanying prospectus form a part, the shares of common stock will be freely tradable in the hands of persons other than our affiliates.

Under this shelf registration process, the selling stockholders to be named in a prospectus supplement may offer and sell, from time to time, shares of our common stock in one or more offerings or resales. Each time shares are offered for sale using this prospectus, we will provide a prospectus supplement that will contain specific information about the terms of that offering, including the specific amounts and prices of the shares of common stock offered and information about the selling stockholders. A prospectus supplement may also add, update or change information contained in this prospectus. Any statement that we make in this prospectus will be modified or superseded by any inconsistent statement made by us in a prospectus supplement,

You should read both this prospectus and any applicable prospectus supplement together with the additional information about our company to which we refer you in the section of this prospectus entitled “Where You Can Find More Information.” If there is any inconsistency between the information in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement, you should rely on the information in the applicable prospectus supplement.

- the possibility that we may be subject to liability for violations of employment or discrimination laws by our clients and acts or omissions of client employees who may be deemed to be our agents, even if we do not participate in any such acts or violations, including possible liability related to our co-employment relationship with our professional employer organization;
- potentially unfavorable outcomes related to pending or future legal matters; and
- risks related to the integration of the businesses we acquire.

These and other risks and uncertainties may cause our actual results to differ materially and adversely from those expressed in any forward-looking statements.
